

Chris Lloyds

- Lead singer of Pop band SKINTITE for 5 years. Supported Blondie, Joe Cocker, Meatloaf, José Feliciano and numerous other acts.
- Session singer who sang hundreds of jingles and TV themes including 'Carry On' and 'Runaway' for the TV series "The Henderson Kids" starring Kylie Minogue, Channel 7s 'Sydney Weekender' theme and 'You've got a friend on TEN'.
- Lead singer of BIG RED, had a Top 10 hit with 'The Traveller' and appeared on Countdown, Sounds, Simon Townsend's Wonder World and other TV shows.
- Lived in Los Angeles, writing, recording and performing for 2 years.
- Top 5 hit in KL, Malaysia with original song 'Forever' off his 'Caught in the Magic' CD on Pony Canyon Records Asia.
- Released the duet "Sometimes When We Touch" and "Driving Me Crazy" on Mega/Sony.
- Recorded the Brisbane Broncos theme song 'Born to Win' and sang it on TV and at Lang Park along with the national anthem.
- TV appearances on Mornings, The Daily Edition, Midday Show, Good Morning Australia, Ernie and Denise, The Don Lane Show & The Morning Show.
- Starred in 'Neighbours' for 3 months playing Natalie Imbruglia's fiancé. Also appeared on GP, E Street, ABC TV's 'The Straits' and movies 'South Pacific' & 'The Shanahan Mysteries.
- Toured nationally with 'Long Way To The Top' in 2003.
- Toured as a member of Birtles, Shorrocks, Goble taking Goble's place
- 2011 released "So Good So Far" CD with guitarist Art Phillips ex musical director for Barry Manilow and Demis Roussos.
- 2013 released "Chris Lloyds Sings Matt Monro" on Fanfare Records through Universal Music. Alan Jones made this album of the week.
- Sang for Prince Charles, John Howard PM, Malcolm Turnbull and the G20 Finance Ministers.
- Hosted "Mornings in the Arena" for 7 years, a monthly show at the Reef Hotel Casino in Cairns.
- Performs one-man show 'Hits of the Crooners'.